Dear Zach,

Please excuse the brevity and the lack of detail in this respomse to your 12/19 and enclosure, which I've read, but I cannot keep with with what I need to.

There is an incredible amount of imformation public on the JFK assassinatiom and to be able to theorize responsibly there must be command of all of it.

Which you do not and cannot have.

And which takes years to acquire.

There is more much more, but I've no time for it.

Best wishes,
